Speakers Bureau

Members of our First Contact 9-1-1 Instructional Services Team would be honored to attend your next event! FC911 offers motivational speakers, professional speakers, and keynote speakers for your upcoming conference or event.

Our Instructors speak on a variety of subjects. We've had the opportunity of speak in small venues, as well as State, Regional and National Conferences. We're also happy to design a custom presentation to meet your individual needs.

We specialize in providing an interesting presentation that will give your group valuable information, show you techniques that you may not have seen before, or to just make you think. Please refer to our Staff page to meet our Instructional ServicesTeam.

We usually ask for about six weeks of advance notice prior to the event, to give our speakers an opportunity to set aside your dates in their schedules.

To schedule a program, or to find out more information, call our FC911 Customer Care Line at (866) 613.1911.
